Dear Nikita,

I am writing you this letter to express my appreciation for the assembly that you presented to our high school students. It was a very worthwhile and moving experience for both our students and staff. Based on their feedback, your presentation was entertaining but more importantly meaningful. The realistic approach of your message really grabbed their attention.

I also appreciated your staying after the assembly and talking with the many students who wanted to visit with you more. Based on my observations of the one on one conversations that you had with our students, it is very evident that you possess the ability to communicate effectively with teenagers.

I would highly recommend you to any school district or educational system that wants their students to hear a positive message about making good decisions in life. You truly are one who can deliver that type of message with impact and results.

Sincerely,

Phillip Kennedy
Principal
